

Dr. Dinesh Chandra Devkota

- Visiting Professor, CDES TU Nepal
- Chair – Centre for Green Economy Development-Nepal (CGED)
- Policy Advisor- IDS Nepal
- Former Director , CTEVT Nepal
- Former Hon Vice Chair, National Planning Commission (NPC), Government of Nepal (GoN)

Chair–CGED Nepal and Visiting Professor, Centre Department Of Environmental Science (CDES), Tribhuvan University (TU) major area of specialization on Sustainable Development, Environment and Climate Change, TEVT policy formulation, and Science and Policy Interface, Green Economy Development and others.

Former Hon Vice Chairman (VC), and former Hon Member (Jan 2009-Sept 2011) of the National Planning Commission NPC, GoN and contributed in development planning in Nepal. Provided leadership on policy planning, programme development and monitoring of development task of country. Contributed in high level policy formulation mainly in the fields of technical education, MDGs, Green Economy, Climate Change (Adaptation and Mitigation), low carbon growth path, and public-private partnerships and many more.

Prior joining to NPC has more than 25 years experience in development field mainly in Technical Education and Vocational Training, and Infrastructure sector of Nepal. Contributed in many national and international Seminar/Conferences as Key Note Speaker and in respectable senior roles. Achievements have been published, papers in many reputable national and international journals.